

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

Publication Policy

Ege University, Journal of the Faculty of Science publishes significant research results in all areas of pure sciences (Biology, Chemistry, Physics), Mathematics and Statistics and interdisciplinary fields of all. Submitted papers are judged primarily on originality and relevance, but effective presentation is also important. Contributions should conform to generally accepted practices for scientific papers with respect to organization and style.

The Contributions appearing in Ege University, Journal of the Faculty of Science may be of the following kinds:

- Scientific Works: Original research or experiences articles. These works will be examined according to their originality and relevance by at least two anonymous referees, selected by Editorial Board members specialized in that field.
- Surveys (referred)
- Letters to editors

Manuscript Preparation

Authors are encouraged to submit their manuscripts electronically to a member of Editorial Board or Editorial secretary including a covering submittal letter indicating in which of the categories the contribution should be considered. The use of any Standard Tex and PDF format is strongly encouraged. However, the journal also welcomes hard copies of the manuscripts submitted by regular mail if the floppy disk of the article included within.